

MoBelCo gcv, created in 2016 by Dr. Walter Mondt, is a private independent company and service provider of sustainable environmental solutions, based on long term and international experience.

The services of MoBelCo are related to consultancy, general management and engineering in the field of:

Environment

- environmental and social safeguards; EIA, ESIA's
- marine- and river environment
- disaster management and climate change
- environmental feasibility studies; circular economy

Soil investigations

- soil remediation
- rehabilitation of 'Brownfields' or industrial areas; mining sites
- dredging sludge and sediment treatment

Waste and recovery management

- municipal- and industrial waste management; waste to materials, waste to energy

Water management

- water resources management
- marine- and river environment

Renewable energy

- renewable energy; pumped hydro storage

General service delivery

- environmental audits ; second opinions, environmental guidelines
- general project management and project coordination
- legal assistance; permitting

As an independent private company, MoBelCo gcv offers high qualified expertise, based on a long term, sustainable and cost effective strategy, referring to multiple local and international references and clients.

For more information, please contact:

Dr. Walter Mondt, General Manager MoBelCo gcv

T +32 475 40 70 30, walter.mondt@telenet.be